DREAM + VISION = REALITY

Issue 6 : 29 February 2008

I would like to just say "thank you" to you all—for the encouragement and inspiration we have received since the launch of our website twelve months ago. I have met the most amazing people and I am deeply grateful for that opportunity. It has been one of the most enlightening years of my life! To have a dream, which became a vision and which today is a reality is one of the most awe-inspiring moments a person can have.

This month I also had a mile-stone birthday when I turned 50. My life has been the most amazing journey—but you know, it feels as if it is just beginning. I feel as if I have found my "place", and actually I really have. I've found something that I am completely passionate about, I've found myself, and I've also found that place in my heart where I am truly content and peaceful. Late last year my husband and I also found a "retreat" - a place where our dreams can grow, and where we feel completely at ease. It is a very special place and for me a very spiritual place where I feel at one with the world. It started as a feeling in my heart, it was a place I dreamed about having one day and I am truly blessed to have it all. The photo this month is my place—and I just wanted to share that with you. Isn't it just so gorgeous?

What I want for you all is to be able to have a dream, that you create into a vision and then with faith you can turn that vision into a reality; to recall a moment in your life when you experienced pure joy and to have that in your life today. Kind regards to you all. Through connection we grow! Anne Young People Coaching People
